

Bengaluru Urban district

Bengaluru Urban district is the most densely populated of the thirty-one districts that comprise the Indian state of Karnataka. It is surrounded by the Bengaluru North (formerly known as, Bengaluru Rural district) on the east and north, the Bengaluru South (formerly known as, Ramanagara district) on the west and the Krishnagiri district of Tamil Nadu on the south.

Bangalore Urban district came into being in 1986, with the partition of the erstwhile Bangalore district into Bangalore Urban and Bangalore Rural districts. Bangalore Urban has three taluks: Bengaluru City, Yelahanka and Anekal. It has seventeen hoblies, 872 villages, eleven rural habitations, five towns, one tier-three city and one tier-one city, administered by ninety-six Village Panchayats (Grama Panchayitis), ninety-seven Taluk Panchayats (Taluk Panchayitis), five Town Municipal Councils (Purasabes), one City Municipal Council (Nagarasabe) and one City Corporation (Mahanagara Palike).

The district had a population of 6,537,124 of which 88.11% is urban as of 2001.^[5] As of Census 2011, its population has increased to 9,621,551, with a sex-ratio of 908 females/males, the lowest in the state and its density is 4,378 people per square km.^[6]

Administration

The district administration is headed by a Deputy Commissioner, who is an IAS officer. The deputy commissioner (DC) also functions as the collector and district magistrate of the district.^[15] There are various officials both at the district level and at the taluk levels to assist the Deputy Commissioner. They include the Assistant Commissioner's (Sub-Divisional Magistrate), Tahsildars, Shirstedars, Revenue Inspectors and Village Accountants.

The Bengaluru Urban district is divided into two subdivisions—North and South—each headed by an Assistant Commissioner (AC). The Assistant Commissioners also serve as the Sub-Divisional Magistrates for their respective subdivisions. The North subdivision comprises three taluks, and the South subdivision comprises two taluks, making a total of five taluks. Each taluk is headed by a Tahsildar. Every taluk consists of hoblis and revenue villages, which are administered by Revenue Inspectors and Village Accountants respectively.^{[16][17]}

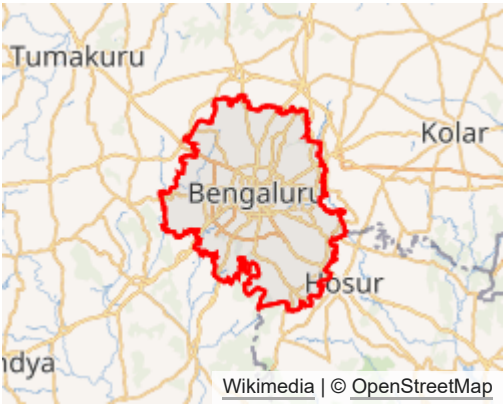

Zilla Panchayat, Bengaluru Urban

The Zilla Panchayat is the local governing body responsible for administering the rural areas of the Bengaluru Urban district, excluding the urban local bodies. It is headed by an Adhyaksha (president) and Upadhyaksha, who are elected representatives. Administratively, the Zilla Panchayat is headed by a Chief Executive Officer (CEO), an IAS officer. It serves as the apex body in the three-tier Panchayati Raj governance structure in the district.^{[18][19][20]}
